For Ordinary Women.
 Is it not food for thought to such of us as have benevolent minds now and then that our charities are all for the fallen and degraded? We seem to forget that the average woman who has led an honest, respectable, hardworking life is sometimes overtaken by bitter want and distress. There are homes for the very old and homes for the very young, places of refuge for women that are very good and a few for women that are very bad, but to the great class between no thought seems to have been given. To be sure, these ordinary women ask no consideration, and as long as they can work and keep well they peg along day by day, earning their honest living, but at the close of their life, when old age and illness come together, they look about them in vain for any home or shelter. In this connection The Puritan calls attention to the fact that in England a fund is being raised to help women in need without reference to creed and with the fewest possible rules or restrictions of any sort. It is specially designed to aid that middle class, the respectable workingwomen.
 The idea is one that might well be imitated in American cities.

The New Braid Work.
 A design in the new braid work worthy of imitation is a centerpiece wrought out principally with terra cotta and soft green braids, which are used precisely in the same manner as the narrow silk ribbons, only the stitches are longer and the patterns bolder. The spaces left within the outlines are filled in with fancy stitches. The cornflower powdering is given with white and ecru braids, the groups being severally bound with a crescent formed of French knots of terra cotta silk. The terra cotta braid in the border is brightened up by a combination of red embroidered outlines and soft green trellework.

Honolulu, April 21, 1896.
 Mr. C. W. MACFARLANE—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble so recommend it as a stimulant to new growth.
 Yours truly,
 J. P. DANIELS.
